4. At the expiration of three months from the date of insertion of the last advertisement, the President of the District Board, shall, if satisfied of the loss of destruction of a portion of a debenture bond and of the justice of the claim of the applicant, and if sufficient portion for the identification of the debenture bond so lost or destroyed shall have been produced, shall upon the execution of such bond of indemnity (with or without surety) as is herein aftermentioned, issue to the applicant a duplicate debenture bond in lieu of that so lost or destroyed as aforesaid.

5. If, however, no sufficient portion of the debenture bond so lost or destroyed shall have been produced as aforesaid, then at the expiration of one year from the date of such last advertisement, the President, District Board, shall, if satisfied as aforesaid, and if no reasons appear to the contrary, pass an order directing the Treasury where interest is to be made payable upon the execution of such bond of indemnity as is herein after mentioned to pay the applicant interest in respect of the bond so lost or destroyed pending the issue of a duplicate bond and also shall at the expiration of three years from the date of the publication of the list in which the lost or destroyed security is first mentioned, if no reason to the contrary appear, issue to the applicant (on his executing and procuring the execution by two sureties of such indemnity bond as is hereinafter mentioned, should the same be deemed necessary by the President, District Board), a duplicate bond in lieu of that so lost or destroyed as aforesaid.

6. The President, District Board, may within three years of the date of an order passed by him under the preceding rule, if he finds sufficient reason, alter or cancel such order and may also require that the interval before the issue of a duplicate bond, be extended to six years, or such shorter period not being less than three years as he may think fit.

7. Indemnity bonds when taken on the issue of a duplicate debenture bond or bonds shall be for the face value or market value whichever is the highest, or such bond or bonds and when taken on the issue of orders for payment of interest shall be for twice the amount of interest involved, that is to say, the aggregate amount of all back interest accrued due on the bond plus twice the amount of all interest accrue due thereon, during the three years which will have to elapse before the issue of a duplicate bond can be made. A fee of eight annas will be charged on bonds of Rs. 100 and less, and a fee of Re. 1 will be charged on other bonds before the issue of a duplicate. If, however, President considers that the circumstances of the case demand that a bond shall be specially prepared by the legal adviser of the District Board, such fees as may fixed by the President, shall be payable.
